

YOGA AND MEDITATION

Mondays 7:30 pm - 8:40 pm
Starting November 6th, ongoing

All are welcome. Please bring your own mat, we do have a few available to share.

Yoga is more than simply exercise. It is an integrative practice that not only builds physical strength and balance but also emotional, mental, and spiritual strength and balance. This class will offer varied approaches. In some, we will bring focused attention to breath and body as we move through postures and end with a short sitting meditation. Other times Yin yoga, (stretching postures which are held for a longer time) will be offered as a moving meditation. Consider this an opportunity to learn or practice, find ease and bring a pleasant end to the day.

This class is designed for all levels and is both trauma and recovery informed.

$10.00 donation requested, cash or check only
